A Mind Is A Terrible Thing To Waste

Yesterday, May 1973, we went to a conference with a teacher, a psychologist, and a principal. We were told that our beautiful 8-year old daughter was not very smart, couldn't learn, couldn't read, and probably never do well at anything. She had been tested by the experts and they all agreed . . .

except one!

Today, May 1988, this child graduates from college with a BA in education, with a Minor in English, and with a 3.5 average. This 23 year old daughter plans to attain a Master's in Special Education, and she'll spend the rest of her life teaching children who cannot read. We hope that someday a parent will say of her . . .

except one!

Kathy Tavormina, wherever you are, whatever you are doing - you saved a child, our child, and we thank you every day for her life.

ANNE KRISTIN BISHOP
TEACHER

We know it won't be easy for you, but you have courage and strength, and you've made it with style and kindness and caring. We are so proud of you. You'll be a great teacher, and a great woman. We love you.

Mom, Dad, Ken III, Kelly, and all your family

Dear Wende;

A time for warm memories

and new beginnings,

a time to dream

and follow your star,

a time to tell you

how proud and happy

you have made all of us

who love you!

Mom, Dad, Stacy, and Vicki

Wishing you the best of luck and happiness and more success in all your undertakings, Lorna.
